

Holy Ghost's Pope Benedict XVI Schola cordially invites you to join us for

COME, LET'S REJOICE

A Celebration of English Renaissance Music

FREE CONCERT

*2:30 p.m. Saturday,
October 18,
Holy Ghost Church
1041 N. Central St.*

The schola will sing works in English and Latin by Thomas Tallis, William Byrd, Christopher Tye, and John Sheppard—among the finest choral composers of all time.

The program will also feature a set of sacred songs by soprano Maria Magdalena Rist and lutenist Thomas Tallant, frequent performers with the Knoxville Early Music Project.

There is no charge for the concert, but gifts will be gratefully accepted and will benefit the schola—which is entirely self-funded—and Holy Ghost Church.

Please come and bring a friend!

The Pope Benedict XVI Schola rehearses on Monday nights and welcomes singers of all faiths who can read music, sing in a small ensemble, and commit to singing for the 8 a.m. Mass at Holy Ghost on second and fourth Sundays.
